

Name: Ala`a Faisal Al-Omoush

Date of Birth: September 1995

Place of Birth: Mafraq

Education:

Bachelor's Degree: Surveying Engineering from Al al-Bayt University

Master's Degree: Civil Engineering / Water Resources and Environment from Jordan University of Science and Technology

Career:

Ala`a Faisal Al-Omoush has established herself as a proficient engineer with a specialized focus on Geographic Information Systems (GIS). After completing her undergraduate studies in Surveying Engineering at Al al-Bayt University, she pursued advanced education in Civil Engineering, concentrating on Water Resources and Environment at Jordan University of Science and Technology.

Career highlights

1. Trainee at Al Majd Al Arabi
2. Worked at the municipality (Municipality of Salhia and Nayfa)
3. Research assistant at Crisis and Disaster Management and Modeling Center
4. Worked at lecturer course in ArcGis Software and Research team leader In Excellence Academy
5. Worked at Consolidated Consulting Group
6. Work GIS Specialist at ILO

Key Skills and Contributions:

-Resarech Assitant At Al-Bayt University by Ph. Mo'ayyad Shawaqfah -Work on projects.

-Work on the projects of the Department of Crisis Disaster Management (Especially the Dead Sea accident in floods)

-Establishment of water and hydrology projects. -Teaching survey subjects

- Member of the research team of the Crisis and Disaster Management Center at Al al-Bayt University

-Proficient in GIS analysis and application

-Experienced in managing and interpreting geographic data

-Contributed to environmental and urban planning projects