Dear EURAS Member Universities and Partners;

We are pleased to share with you an exciting opportunity received from Istanbul Aydın University.

The UNESCO Summer Peace & Diplomacy Program will take place between 12-25 July 2026 in Istanbul, offering students a unique international experience focused on peace, diplomacy, international relations, and intercultural communication.

This two-week program combines academic lectures, interactive workshops, and cultural activities, providing students with valuable skills in global citizenship, communication, and policy understanding.

We kindly encourage you to share this opportunity with your students and support their participation in this enriching international program.

For detailed information and application, please refer to the attached document and links below.

Best regards,
