

Teaching type	Credit hours(3)	History & Theory of Architecture(1)	course number
Blended	pre-requisite		703241
The course presents the development of architecture and construction through ancient civilizations: (pharaonic) ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Greek, and Roman. As well as focusing on architectural analyzes of models of famous historical buildings and eliciting the distinguished architectural personality of some historical architectural landmarks, linking historical models with theories to employ conclusions in architectural design and presenting the views of theorists who had an impact in advancing the development of architecture.			