

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

You are a young director or cinema student and you are resident in Jordan?

You speak French?

You will be 30 years old or less on January 1st 2019?

The Cooperation and Cultural Action Service of the Embassy of France in Jordan is offering a scholarship opportunity to a candidate who is resident of Jordan to participate to the Femis Summer School in Paris from May 31st to July 26th 2019 on the topic of documentary filmmaking.

This training includes theoretical and practical components that will allow the selected candidate to reinforce and improve his/her technical knowledge. It is organized by the Fémis (« Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Métiers de l'Image et du Son »), main cinema school in France that is also recognized on an international level.

For more details, please check the attached program presentation.

Complete applications should be sent by e-mail to Mrs. Hania HADDAD:

hania.haddad@diplomatie.gouv.fr

- application form (attached)
- CV in French
- an application letter (in French or in English)

Deadline for submitting the applications: February 2nd 2019