

Teaching type	Credit hours(3)	Sanitary Systems, Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning	course number
Blended	pre-requisite 703232		703373
This course provides to students the basic definitions, materials used in sanitary installations in buildings, sanitary pieces, types and how they work implementation, cold and hot water systems, sewage systems, rainwater drainage system, fire fighting systems in buildings. Drinking water specifications and treatment, heat transfer to and from buildings and the basic definitions related to them, identifying heating systems in buildings by water or hot air, as well as identifying methods of air exchange, ventilation and industrial conditioning, types of devices used, insulation methods and materials used in buildings.			