

Teaching type	Credit hours(3)	Architectural Criticism and Analysis	course number
Blended	pre-requisite 703343		703441
This course is concerned with presenting and criticizing contemporary architecture theories and evaluating ideological and philosophical principles, influential values and principles that are related to contemporary architectural trends and contradictory goals and orientations, with the help of illustration with examples of the works of distinguished architects and critical architects' proposals influencing contemporary architecture trends.			